

The Faculty aims to:

- ensure that everyone in our faculty community will feel valued, secure and respected;
- ensure frequent use of praise and every person will experience the pleasure of success;
- use every opportunity to increase the confidence and self-esteem of our pupils and staff;
- create a pleasant, stimulating and stable environment in which pupils can enjoy their learning;
- recognise the many ways in which a child may be disadvantaged and do all in our power to help those special children;
- ease the process of transition from each key stage so that pupils settle quickly to become enthusiastic learners;
- provide all pupils with opportunities to acquire, develop and enjoy communication skills;
- provide all pupils with opportunities to acquire, develop and enjoy basic and key skills;
- provide all pupils with opportunities to acquire, develop and enjoy their knowledge and understanding of Wales and the Welsh language;
- provide all pupils with opportunities to enjoy and acquire basic and key skills;
- help all members of our faculty community to fulfil their potential; by enabling them to achieve the highest levels of performance within the faculty environment;
- to provide calm, kind, caring role models always and communicate desirable values and attitudes to all pupils at all times;
- allow our students to become autonomous learners and developing their independence;
- endeavour to ensure that each pupil leaves us with a feeling of achievement, pride and self-worth;
- foster good, strong community links.
